Food For Thought:

The campaign to expand universal free school meals to all young people in Scotland

How you can take action to support the campaign

1

Sign our petition to the First Minister of Scotland easily by scanning the QR code .

2

Write to your local MSP urging them to support the campaign. Scan the QR code for details on how to find your local MSP's email address and a template letter to use.

3

Take your own action in your community, workplaces, schools, organisation to raise awareness and build the campaign. By generating grassroots support we can create a powerful movement to ensure all school pupils have access to nutritional meal free of charge and of stigma.
